

The Vicar, curate, church wardens and choir of All Saints' Church, Barton Stacey probably just before World War 1.

Photograph courtesy of Mr Bob Percey, whose gt.gt.grandfather William Charles Ball is the man with sideburns. This photo appeared originally on the Barton Stacey parish community website.

Please see following pages for identifications. If you can put more names to faces, please email history@bartonstacey.com

man in boater
Mr _____ Brooks

Tom Phippens
m. Mary Ellen Ball

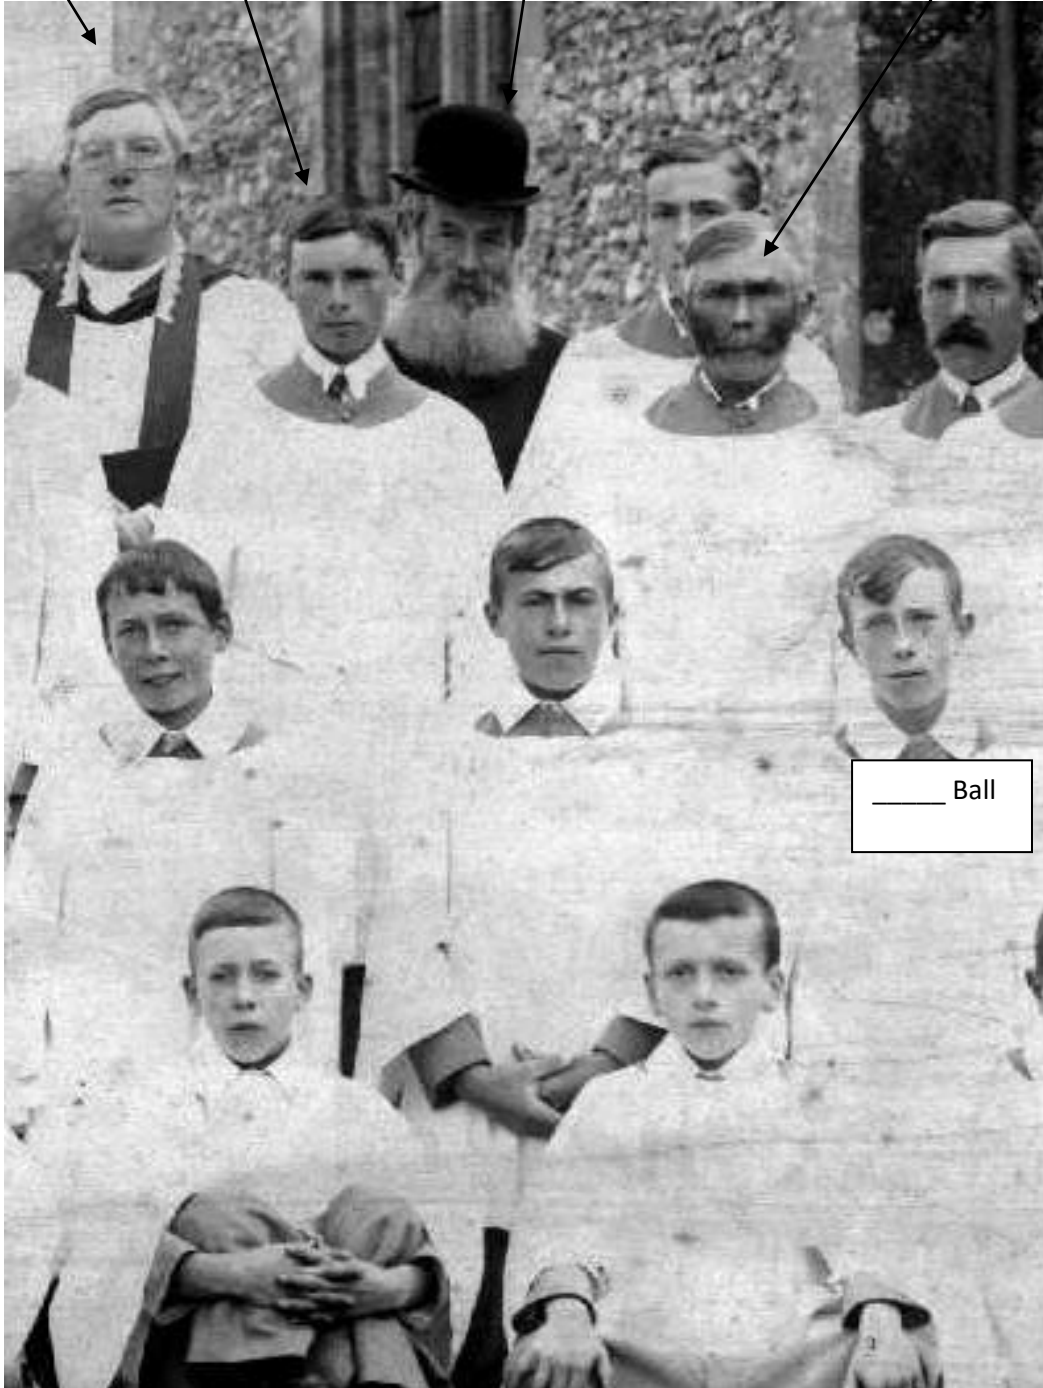

Barton Stacey church choir
Prepared by Barton Stacey History Group

Rev. Arthur Charles Franklin
(incumbent 1909 - 1923)

George Phippen
(1892-1950)

Man in bowler "Buffer" Froome, perhaps Arthur Froome, the grocer and keeper of the Post Office.

Man with sideburns
William Charles Ball
(1858-1915)

Ball

Fred Walters

Albert Ball
b.1884

Henry Ball
b.1902?

George Ball in black jacket, b.1900
(pumped the organ)